OUR CUSTOMERS

A customer is the most important person ever in a place of business, either in person or by telephone. A customer is not dependant on us, we are dependant on him. A customer is not an interruption of our work, he is the person on whom we depend for our existence. We are not doing him a favor by serving him. He is doing us a favor by allowing us to serve him.

It is not the fact of making a sale to the customer that makes life pleasant. It is the association with him that helps men to be better human beings. If it were not for those coming to us for the merchandise that we handle, we would not be in business. So, don't forget to treat your customer as one who helps you, not as one seeking help.

One-Way Phone Broadcasts By PAUL GALLICO

A strange, new and astonishing passion seems to be developing in the United States via the radio-the cult of listening in to one-half of a telephone conversation

You were aware of this, I am sure, not long ago when you sat with you ear glued to the combination of weird sounds that go to make up the Truth or Consequences program, and hearkened to Mr. Ralph Edwards conducting a one-way telephone conversation with the ucky Fort Worth matron who identified Miss Hush and walked off with the remaining half of the national wealth.

Why they cannot filter through the really interesting portion, the other half, I do not know. It probably has something to do with the F. C. C., or maybe they are afraid that some uninhibited lady or gent will from his or her end of the telephone voice his real opinion of radio, but such as it is, the performance has a tendency to drive the listener quite nuts. You try to fill in those blank spaces when the announcer is listening to the conversation and go crackers trying to figure out what is being said at the other end.

Not An Isolated Case

But the Truth or Consequences incident is not an isolated case. Nightly the disk jockets-in our metropolitan area, anyway-urge their listeners to call them up. Then they answer the telephone while they are on the air and let you in on half of it.

This leads to such brilliant passages of entertainment as: ANNOUNCER: "Hello! Good morning! Yes Yes

Ya think so? Well, well, well (Aside to audience) It's Joe Schmo. He's calling up from a bar and grill on Third Avenue and 87th Street. You say you're listening to the program, Joe? Ha ha ha ha! Say, whaddya know Yeah? Ya do, eh? Ha ha ha ha! That's rich. You kill me, Joe. You what? The Missus says what? Oh, I see. Okay, Joe. Thanks for calling.

So help me, this goes on all night in our town. Obviously Joe Schmo is a card but you never get to hear what he said and it haunts you, sometimes for days.

You will ask me what I am doing sitting up into the wee hours istening to disk jockeys, and I will tell you. Research. It was in my mind to do a piece opining that never in all the brief history of radio have the airwaves been so filled with dimwit blather, pure unadulterated bull and pudding-headed piffle as emanates from the pazoos of the young men who spin the platters and gabble between

Girl, Eight, Was Then Shot, Buford Sennett Confesses To Wisconsin Officials

JEFFERSON, Wis., Dec. 16 .-(INS)-Buford Sennett, 23-yearold life termer, confessed Monday to District Attorney Francis J. Garity of Jefferson county that he and a friend killed 8-year-old Georgia Jean Weckler by feeding her sleeping pills and then shoot-

Sennett refused to disclose the name of his "friend" who accompanied him on an automobile ride of several miles after they had kidnaped the little school girl. Found Girl Dead

Sennett, convicted with Robert Winslow of slaying Carl Carlson, University of Wisconsin student, on Nov. 14, told Garity:

"I drove to some woods where I found that my friend had given the girl the rest of the sleeping pills in the box except two and at that time I found she was dead."

Sennett said that previously he and his friend had given the Weckler girl sleeping pills. He added: "You will find, Mr. Garity, but I know that she died from the sleeping pills.

Margaret Truman Charms Audience In Kansas City

Daughter Of President Faces Critical Home Folks, Wins Their Acclaim

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 16 .-(INS) - Miss Margaret Truman, daughter of the president, sang before an artist's toughest critic--a home town audience-and came through with a creditable performance last night in her first appearance as soloist in Kansas City.

When Miss Truman stepped from the wings, she knew she was among friends. But she also knew that these same friends were apt to be critical in judging Margaret Truman, the president's daughter, if not Margaret Truman, the artist starting on a singing career. Charm Wins Out

The audience of 2,700 persons, many of them not music lovers. was cool during the opening Mozart numbers but warmed after two French folk songs and the plainly difficult "La Feuvette"

Despite her critical audience Miss Truman was confident her charm would win out, and it did during her four encores that included a nocturne and a lullaby. Hayden's "My Mother Bids Me

If and when these beneficiary nations reach a state of self-sufficiency, and even prosperity, the achievements of the Red bloc under the Communist system will appear so meager in comparison that Communism will be repudiated.

Housing Authority In California Is Now Facing Probe

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16 .- (INS) A Congressional investigation was ordered into charges of misconduct and corruption by officials of the Public Housing Authority in California.

The action was taken by Rep. Harness (R) Ind., chairman of the House Subcommittee on Publicity and Propaganda, after a preliminary inquiry was said to indicate "mismanagement — and possible fraud" by PHA officials at San

Harness said investigators and expert auditors are being sent to San Diego at once to collect more evidence and declared the investigation would be broadened later to include other cities in California and elsewhere in the nation. In a preliminary report, Frank

T. Bow, the subcommittee's general counsel, declared that an onthe-spot check of PHA activities indicated (1) "Mismanagement and possible fraud-in connection with the handling of commercial leases" (2) Improper use of gov-ernment property, "including flagrant use of government-owned cars for personal use of PHA officials" (3) improper political activity in apparently violation of the Hatch Act and (4) an effort to mislead officials and Congress on public housing.

Why our work is never done

Asked what he thought of a big city he had visited, Mark Twain said: "It will be wonderful ... when it's finished."

A telephone system is like a big city in this respect, for it can never be finished.

Even if everybody who wanted telephone service had it, and even if everybody who had telephone service had the kind of service and the kind of instrument he wanted, the job of building the system would not be done.

Wear and tear would always keep telephone people busy, and the equipment that didn't have to be replaced because of wear and tear would, sooner or later, have to be replaced because Bell Telephone Laboratories had developed and Western Electric had built something that would do its work better and at lower cost.

From your telephone instrument to all central office equipment, including the wire and cable in between, there is no single unit of telephone apparatus that continual research hasn't improved.

This is why our work will never be done, our system never finished . . . and why we must spend millions of dollars every year to keep providing you with the best possible telephone service at the lowest possible cost.

Charges European Committee 'Packed' Before Making Trip

-Rep. Lemke (R) N. D., charged Monday that congressional committees which went to Europe this year to investigate conditions there were "packed." The congressman did not say who "packed" them or why, but he intimated members generally were appointed who would support a program of foreign aid.

Lemke complained in a statement that there were approximately 20 members of Congress "sojourning in Europe at government expense" and termed the trips "a reckless waste of public funds. Pay Own Way

The congressman reminded his GOP colleagues that "the Republicans were elected to cut taxes." and added: "We won't be able to do this if that practice continues."

Lemke admonished members to pay their own way next time. He stated: "If any member wishes to travel to foreign lands, let him pay his own expenses. Let him travel just as a plain citizen of the United

"He will then be able to see and learn more. Several members did this and I got more information from them than I did from those who traveled at government expense. There was never any de-mand or need to send 200 members abroad. Five or six could have, and would have, done a better job-a more intelligent job."

MORE POWER TO AMERICA $5,000,000,000 worth!

Five billion dollars is a lot of money. And this five billion will mean many things to a lot of people. It's the investment required by the five-year new construction program already begun by the business-managed electric companies.

This five billion will build hundreds of additions to existing power plants, install new generators to manufacture 10 million horsepower, pay for thousands of miles of wire and cable . . . create thousands of jobs.

Our part of this huge sum to date is almost four million dollars. A new turbo-generator costing three million two hundred thousand dollars has just gone into service at our power plant at West Pittsburg. An additional five hundred thousand is being spent for new transmission and distribution facilities. Other construction will raise the total much higher over the next few years.

A 65-year old, thirteen-billion-dollar American industry is pacing itself for a 38% growth in the next five years. There's only one place in the world where this five-billion-dollar vision could come true-in America, where enterprise, imagination, courage, resourcefulness and faith are free to see great goals-and reach them?

Dispute About U.S. Hockey Team For The Olympics

United States Olympic committee A.M. waited today for official word from Switzerland's host Olympic group concerning the U.S.O.C.-International differences over an American hockey team for the forthcoming winter games. The International Ice Hockey Federation has favored selection of a team entered by the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States to represent the U.S. at St. Moritz, Switzerland, January 30-February 8.

The U. S. Olympic association, backed by the National A.A.U., has termed the A.H.A. "professional" and has threatened to withdraw entirely from the winter games unless its own team is recognized instead of the A.H.A. entrant.

Week-end reports said that the Swiss Olympic committee had decided to recognize the A.H.A. rather than the U.S. Olympic committee, but U.S.O.C. officials in Chicago say they have heard nothing officially from the Swiss.
